Governor Long Holds Parley On Tidelands

Senate Leaders Attend Luncheon At Washington

WASHINGTON, May 18 (Special) — Louisiana Gov. Earl Long today conferred with a dozen senators and members of the state Congressional delegation as he began a fresh battle to win a three and one-half league boundary for the Louisiana tidelands.

His fight, he said, will be based on the philosophy that all states are like children and should be treated equally regardless of how they came into the union. Louisiana, he declared, wants to be given the same boundary as Texas and Florida.

The governor took advantage of a special luncheon given in his honor by his nephew, Sen. Russell Long, to try out the "new approach" on the dozen senators present.

Particularly, he said, he discussed the tidelands issue with Sens. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma and Paul Douglas of Illinois.

Kerr and Douglas, as well as the other who "gave the governor a chance" to discuss the issue were "noncommittal."

"However," said Long, "I think we put up a good case."

Other senators present included Sens. Walter George and Dick Russell of Georgia, Sen. George Smathers of Florida, Sen. Earle C. Clements of Kentucky, Sen. John McClellan of Arkansas, Sen. John Stennis of Mississippi, Louisiana, Sen. Allen J. Ellender, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Sen. Pat McNamara of Michigan, Sen. Warren Magnuson of Washington and Majority leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

Also present were Rep. Edwin Willis of St. Martinville, Secretary of the Senate Felton Johnson, Joseph C. Duke, Senate Sergeant at Arms; and three Louisianians who accompanied the governor to Washington. They are state Sen. Gabriel Akcar of New Iberia; Raymond F. Hufft, State Adjutant General; and Dr. C. J. Saloom of Lafayette.

It was indicated that further legislation may be introduced in congress as part of the effort to have the Louisiana tidelands boundary fixed at 3 1/2 leagues.

Long also planned to confer with interior department officials. Asked if he planned to poll presidential candidates as to their stand on the tidelands issue, Long said he means to leave that to his nephew, Senator Long, and Senator Ellender.

The governor said he would sup-

5 School Board Members Will Be Elected This Year

The Ouachita Parish Democratic Executive Committee met Friday and called for a first primary election on July 31.

To be elected are five school board members from the following wards: one from Ward 1; one from Ward 2; two from Ward 3; and one from Ward 5.

The election will be held the same day as that of U. S. senators and representatives.

Elected for six year terms, the school board members' terms are staggered, with about a third of them being elected at the same time as the senatorial and congressional elections.

Thomas Hayes, secretary of the committee, said Friday that candidates for school board member from the wards named above may file with either the secretary or Burt W. Sperry, chairman of the committee. Time for filing is from now until 5 p.m., May 28, he said. Qualification fee is $20.

Democrats To Hold New Conference To Discuss Possibility Of Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON, May 18 —UP—House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack said Friday he and other party leaders will talk over the possibility that the unexpectedly large budget surplus this year warrants an income tax cut.

The Massachusetts Democrat told newsmen that he personally has "never foreclosed the possibility of a tax cut for lower income groups."

But other key House members, including some influential members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means committee, warned against any tax cut at the present time. They said any surplus should be used to pay off part of the whopping national debt.

The question of a tax cut was raised by the forecast of the Treasury Department and Budget Bureau Thursday that the surplus at the end of the present fiscal year will be $1.8 billion — more than five times higher than estimated by President Eisenhower in January.

The staff members of the joint Senate - House Committee on Taxation were even more optimistic. They estimated that the surplus will amount to $2.3 billion this year and $2.2 billion in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

"Thus we are planning on maintaining a force of approximately 2,850,000 in the armed services for the indefinite future,"

Earlier, Harold E. Stassen, President Eisenhower's disarmament adviser, called the Soviet announcement an indication the Communists want to continue "serious negotiations" on disarmament.

He was the first administration leader to give publicly such an optimistic appraisal of the Soviet move. The White House, Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles all have belittled the Kremlin's action.

Stassen admitted that the military manpower cut will increase Russia's aggressive strength if the released servicemen are used to expand big bomber production.

He also told a news conference the administration has called a special meeting May 29 of eight "task forces" to study the Soviet manpower announcement.

AUSTIN, May 18 —UP— State police Friday reported recovery of the body of a woman believed to be that of Mrs. W. F. Hale of San Angelo, who was drowned in a flood on the San Sabá River April 29 that also claimed the lives of her husband and a daughter.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 18 —UP—Police picked up an eight-year-old boy selling whisky for a nickel a pint on Moreland Avenue.

Safety director David Garrison said the youngster was snatching the bottles from an illegal stock cached in a nearby house.

House Group Reverses Vote On Red Trade

Measure To Deny Aid To Trading Allies Is Killed

WASHINGTON, May 18 —UP—The House Foreign Affairs Committee reversed itself under heavy administration pressure Friday and killed a proposal to deny foreign aid to Allies engaged in "strategic" trade with Communist countries.

Handing President Eisenhower a twin victory, the committee also rejected on a "very close" vote a move to slash nearly $1 billion from the administration's $4.9 billion foreign aid program. But this victory may be only temporary.

Ten of the 32 committee members were absent and Chairman James P. Richards (D-S.C.) said a new attempt will be made Tuesday to trim the aid program. Richards said he favors a "substantial" cut in military aid.

The committee, meeting behind closed doors, approved a motion by Rep. Albert P. Marano (R-Conn.) to knock out of the foreign aid bill an amendment approved only Thursday that would have denied U.S. foreign aid to countries sending strategic goods to Red nations.

Richards said the committee felt the restriction, proposed by Rep. Edna F. Kelly (D-N.Y.), might be "dangerous" to U.S. international relations. He also noted that the entire aid program will be studied by a special presidential commission.

Morano said State Department officials had contacted him and other committee members voicing their objections to the Kelly amendment. It was vigorously opposed by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Foreign Aid Chief John B. Hollister and others.

Hypocrisy Hit By Rep. Williams In Bastrop Talk

BY EZRA ADAMS
Of The Morning World Staff
BASTROP, May 18 —U. S. Rep. John Bell Williams (D-Miss.) told a packed Bastrop High School auditorium audience that "Members of the U. S. Supreme Court two years ago threw off their judicial robes and donned the robes of socialist professors."

Williams was the principle speaker at a citizens rally at which U. S. Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) was scheduled to speak. Eastland did not appear, however, and wired that he would not be able to attend the meeting due to other duties.

Williams, who spoke the day before to a crowd in Selma, Ala., said "the fight of the Citizens Council in the South is a fight for the woman, mothers and the children they love."

Williams lashed out at the northern press and radio, charging that much truth is being withheld from the public. "The pink liberals have infiltrated news media" in many areas of the north, Williams said.

"We have some writers in the south who could reach the top in journalism by getting their name on a story that shows up Southern friends as hate-mongers," he declared. "We in the South cannot tell our story because we have no way of telling it—there has been a lot of propaganda going on in this country in the last several years," Williams said. He charged misleading and warped reports have been carried in "all news media."

On integration in Washington, D. C., Williams said there is "much hypocrisy." Williams declared that Attorney General Herbert Brownell's children and the Eisenhower children are attending white segregated schools.

French And Red Leaders Fail To Reach Agreement

MOSCOW, May 18 —UP— French and Soviet leaders ended their talks without agreement today. But a crowd of cheering Russians mobbed them anyway in a strange and moving scene of jubilation and camaraderie.

The crowd of about 500 Russians gathered in the dusk outside the French Embassy. Inside were Premier Guy Mollet of France and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and the Soviet leaders, Premier Nikolai Bulganin and the party secretary, Nikita Khrushchev.

Lenin Letter Disowning Stalin Published By Reds As Climax To Campaign

MOSCOW, May 18 —UP—The government revealed to the Russian people Friday a 34-year-old deathbed political will and testament of V. I. Lenin disowning Josef Stalin as a "rude" powerseeker.

Lenin warned that Stalin also was a power seeker governed by hastiness, impulsiveness and resentment.

The disclosure in the Soviet youth newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda climaxed the three-month old campaign to put Stalin into historic perspective as a valiant enough revolutionary whose crime was his one-man rule.

An article told readers that Lenin found Stalin guilty of "rudeness, lack of respect for his comrades, capriciousness and an inclination toward abuse of power."

The wording of the documents was so nearly in accordance with versions published in the West previously that it was plain the Bulganin-Khrushchev leadership is stripping the last seals of secrecy from Lenin's feeling towards the man who took over from him when he died in 1924.

(In Cambridge, Mass., United Press staff correspondent Henry Shapiro, vacationing from his post as dean of West newsmen in Moscow, reported that the revelations probably are the forerunner of other old Bolshevik memoirs critical of Stalin.)

Until he died in 1953, Stalin had stifled the testament Lenin wrote in 1922 and 1923 before his death the following year of arteriosclerosis.

Now the wraps are off. The Komsomolskaya Pravda article was entitled "why it is necessary to fight against the cult of the individual."

The article was intended to explain to younger readers the dangers of Stalin-type rule which has been under fire since the February Revolution.

Shipment Of Arms To Israel Halted By Federal Agents

WASHINGTON, May 18 —UP—The United States has blocked shipment of 21 surplus Army half-tracks to Israel because no U. S. export license had been issued to cover them, the State Department disclosed Friday.

It said the half-tracks, sometimes used to carry artillery weapons, were purchased by the Israeli Commissioner, purchasing agent for the Israeli government. Custom agents discovered them aboard a freighter of New York harbor May 10 and ordered them removed.

Department spokesman Lincoln White said the customs officials had no alternative but to block the shipment because no export license had been obtained for them. He said a license had been issued for spare parts but not for the assembled half-tracks themselves.

Race Resolution Adopted By Union

WASHINGTON, May 18 —UP—The AFL-CIO Textile Workers Union Friday adopted a resolution favoring public school integration despite a warning from southern delegates that the action may mean the downfall of the union in the South.

The resolution was passed during the final hours of the union's convention here. About half of the 1,300 delegates had already left town.

The debate was heated and the southern delegates stalked out of the hall after the resolution was passed.

Action Taken On Voice Vote; Hikes Supports

President Handed Both Victory And Defeat In Plan

WASHINGTON, May 18 —UP—The Senate Friday approved a "second - chance" farm bill that would give President Eisenhower his $1.2 billion soil bank but not his plan for election-year advance payments.

The action was both a victory and a defeat for Mr. Eisenhower. The bill still contained price - boosting features opposed by the White House. But the Senate modified them to meet most of the President's objections and he is expected to sign the measure into law.

Conspicuously absent was the Democratic plan to restore flat 90 per cent supports on basic crops which prompted Mr. Eisenhower to veto the first farm bill.

Senate action came after two days of debate in which Democrats assailed the President's plan to pay farmers this year for promising to join the soil bank next year. They called it a political scheme to buy farm votes in November. Republicans said it would give farmers needed cash now.

The Senate Agriculture committee knocked the prepayment provisions out of the bill and no effort was made by administration leaders to restore it on the floor. The House also voted down the plan.

Filing Deadline Passes; Russell Long Unopposed

BATON ROUGE, May 18 —UP— Sen. Russell Long, Louisiana's junior senator, headed for another six year term when the deadline for filing in the July 31 Democratic primary passed today without opposition.

Long, son of the late Sen. Huey P. Long, first won a Senate seat in 1948, completing the unexpired term of the late Sen. John H. Overton. He won a full six year term in 1950.

In heavily Democratic Louisiana, victory in the party primary is equivalent to election. Long and all eight congressmen are up for re-election.

Long, already a member of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, today was named to another choice Senate committee — Foreign Affairs. The post became vacant with the death of Sen. Alben Barkley (D-Ky.).

The senator's uncle, Rep. George Long of Pineville, was not so lucky. He is opposed in the eighth congressional district by Richard E. Walker of Pollard.

Walker, who plans to resign effective at the qualifying deadline as administrator of the State Division of Employment Security, said he mailed his qualification papers to Leo Coco, Marksville, chairman of the eighth congressional district Democratic executive committee. Cerebral Palsy Celebrity Parade To Open Tonight

The third annual Monroe "Celebrity Parade for Cerebral Palsy" will be held here beginning at 10:30 p.m. Saturday and running through Sunday at 3 p.m. on television.

The parade is attracting a number of stars to Monroe this year. Some of which include Jack Smith, Keefe Braselle, Miss Bonnie Lake, Jack Haskell, Eugenie Baird, and "Astro" of the Space Cadets.

Smith, who is well known by radio and TV fans, will be master of ceremonies for the 16½ hour marathon show. Smith has been MC for over a dozen telethons all over the country for cerebral palsy.

Bobby Pappas, telethon chairman, in announcing these stars said: "We are fortunate to secure the services of such a glittering array of top personalities from all areas of the entertainment fields."

The telethon chairman expressed his hope that the people of the area would respond generously to this worthy cause to help the victims of Cerebral Palsy.

Williams said it was "A sad commentary when lawyers from the four corners of the nation have attacked the 'black Monday' decision and none have defended the action of the Supreme Court in its bundling" of the segregation interpretation. "Every other issue in the land, as grave and foreboding as they are, must pale into insignificance when compared with the Supreme Court's 'black Monday' decision of May 17, 1954.

"Every self-respecting white man and every self-respecting Negro must fight to retain his self-respect," Williams declared.

Williams chided the North for bally-hoing the right of the Negro and how the Negro is mistreated in the South when "many cities of the North discriminate to the extent that many cities and towns won't permit a Negro to stay there overnight."

Touching back on Washington integration in public schools, Williams said "school standards in Washington are deteriorating to a point that white children are being hampered."

"Public, integrated schools in Washington have had to have patrolmen walking the halls to keep down violence," Williams said.

trict and Edwin E. Willis of St. Martinville in the third.

The largest field shaped up in the seventh district, where four candidates opposed Rep. R. A. Thompson of Ville Platte.

Latest candidate was state Rep. Horace Lynn Jones of DeQuincy, 34-year-old insurance agent, real estate man and cattleman, reportedly backed by Gov. Earl Long. Jones, serving a third term in the Legislature, has been active in sponsoring education and forestry legislation.

Other candidates include Raymond Guillory of Ville Platte, state Sen. Henry Larcade of Opelousas, former seventh district congressman, and state Rep. Kenneth Deshotel of Opelousas.

Rep. James H. Morrison of Hammond in the sixth district has one opponent, C. Alvin Tyler, Baton Rouge attorney.

Rep. Hale Boggs of New Orleans in the second district also has one opponent, John Harlan Rhinehart of New Orleans.

In the fourth district, Rep. Overton Brooks of Shreveport is opposed by a Shreveport housewife, Mrs. Sophie Thompson, who lost to Brooks in 1954.

However, L. C. Allen Jr., Shreveport contractor, filed yesterday as a Republican candidate for Congress. Allen will be a candidate in the July 31 Republican primary and meet the Democratic nominee in the November general election.

In 1952, President Eisenhower compelled a two to one majority in the north Louisiana area covered by the fourth district.

Rep. Otto Passman of Monroe, fifth district representative, has two opponents. They are Ragan Madden of Ruston, district attorney for Union and Lincoln parishes, and Mrs. Guy Alford, mayor of Columbia.

Associate Justice Joe B. Ham-ter of Shreveport was unopposed for re-election to a 14-year term in the second Supreme Court district.

"Of course, I am supremely happy," the justice said, "And I am deeply grateful to my friends throughout the state to whom credit for this welcomed result is largely due."

In the three State Board of Education posts up for re-election, A. A. Fredericks of Natchitoches, representing the eighth congressional district had the most opponents, two.

Fredericks, former welfare commissioner and secretary under Long, fell out with the governor in the last election. He is opposed by Mrs. Clara Long Knotts of Many, Long's sister, and Harold McSweeney of Alexandria.

Joseph J. Davies of Arabi, in the first congressional district, is opposed by Raymond A. Nix.

Isom J. Guillory of Eunice was unopposed for the education board post from the second public service commission district.

The 11-member Board of Education is composed of one member each from the eight congressional districts and one from each of the three public service districts.

In the Public Service Commission race in the second district, only two Long supporters had qualified, Ernest S. Clements of Oberlin and state Sen. A. O. Rappelet of Houma.

Chairman Wade Martin Sr. of St. Martinville announced for a fifth six-year term on the commission, but withdrew last weekend with a blast at the governor as a "dictator" and "doublecrosser."

Long is backing proposals that would strip Martin's son, Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr.,

of his duties as state insurance commissioner and custodian of voting machines, in addition to sponsoring opposition to the elder Martin.

To stay STRONG enough for the job...

Louisiana is growing by leaps and bounds! Booming cities and towns, new industries by the scores, diversified agriculture — all use and depend on the telephone as never before.

To provide fast, dependable telephone service in step with this rapid growth, Southern Bell needs to spend more than 90 million dollars in Louisiana in 1956-57. There's a big job ahead!

This huge sum is needed to make telephone service even better and meet the heavy demand for new service. The money must come from people who invest their savings in telephone stocks and bonds — people who expect and are entitled to a fair return for the use of their money.

A financially strong telephone company in Louisiana is good for everybody. If Southern Bell is to stay strong enough to continue to provide improved telephone service, it must be allowed adequate rates.

We believe that the people of Louisiana would rather pay reasonable rates and get more and better telephone service, than pay slightly lower rates for inadequate service. To enable Southern Bell to stay strong enough to do the job, a rate increase is necessary.

Russians Baptists Claim Many Converts Joining Church In Soviet Union

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—An affable, easy-talking team of Russian Baptist leaders came to the United States today and said they're converting some Communists at home to Christianity.

"We have full freedom of religion and we are using it," said 70-year-old Dr. Yakov Zhidkov, the bearded president of Russia's All-Union Council of Evangelical Christian Baptists.

He told a press conference that some Communists are being converted to the church, and when they are, they have to resign from the party, because Communists cannot be church members.

"We have the freedom to do missionary activity," he said. "Every year 10,000 to 12,000 new converts are brought into the Baptist churches."

The five Russian Baptists—four men and a trim, young woman—sat through the hour-long quizing by a score of reporters at a suite in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, shortly after they landed at New York City's International Airport.

It is the first visit by an official church delegation to this country since before the Communist Revolution in 1917, although Zhidkov said some individual churchmen had been here on their own in the late 1920s.

There was a tense moment at the conference when a television interviewer insisted on directing certain questions—whether any of the delegation was a Communist and whether their government had briefed them on what to say—at the young woman.

Oat Farmers In Northeast Area Assured Storage

DELHI, May 18 (Special)—Sen. Allen J. Ellender and Rep. Otto E. Passman today informed the Louisiana Delta Council that federal officials in Washington and Dallas are expediting the shipment of oats stored in northeast Louisiana under the 1955 government loan policy.

Assurance was received by telephone and telegraph, according to Delta Council Secretary - Manager Harvey Grant, that orders have already been issued for moving the bulk of the crop stored in warehouses. It was also said that on May 23 orders will be released to ship the remainder of the stored oats.

Louisiana Delta Council said that action is also underway to quickly move oats stored on the farm and covered by government loans. Council Manager Grant recently telephoned Sen. Ellender and Congressman Passman advising them it was urgent that last year's stored oat crop be moved immediately.

The Northeast Louisiana oat crop matures in late May and early June. Farmers and warehousemen have been anxious to receive assurance that oats now in storage will be moved in time to provide storage facilities for the new crop, Grant said.

Parishes which would be most adversely affected by failure to clear the old crop are Richland, East Carroll, and West Carroll.

The problem in getting the oats moved came about because last year government stored oats were sold domestically. This year these oats are being sold for export only with oats from this area consigned to New Orleans for shipment, Grant explained.

The Commodity Stabilization Service in Dallas, which handles oats from northeast Louisiana, had already reported that there was only limited storage space available in New Orleans. Additional difficulties in securing cargo ships has therefore resulted in delaying movements of the oats to the port.

Previously Rep. Passman had advised LDC that he was making every effort to see that a ship to receive the oats was routed to New Orleans or that the oats be moved for storage elsewhere.

Sen. Ellender told Grant before today that he was having the Washington office of CSS contact the Dallas branch and he felt optimistic that loading orders for the oats would be forthcoming soon.

"Many farmers in the Louisiana Delta Council area can be certain that facilities will be available to store the 1956 harvest," Grant said.

Cross said two of the men then jerked him to his feet, tied his hands and legs with thick cord and stuffed a cotton handkerchief in his mouth.

High Scholarship Honor Accorded To Ruston Youth

BATON ROUGE, — For the third year in succession a Louisiana State University senior has been awarded a coveted Ellihu Root-Samuel Tilden Law Scholarship to New York University.

This year's recipient of one of the 20 scholarships given throughout the United States is Billy Ray Pessnell of Ruston. Other LSU students who received the law scholarship were Roy Beard of Bogalusa in 1955 and Tom Self of Anacoco in 1954.

The scholarship is valued at $2,300 for one year, but may be renewed for the second and third year if the student maintains a high standard in legal and general scholarship. Two candidates from each federal judicial district are chosen on the basis of high scholarship, active extracurricular participation, and potential capacity for unselfish public leadership. Academic records of candidates must be superior.

The scholarships are named in honor of two law graduates of NYU who were considered models for lawyers in the best of American tradition. Root was Secretary of War and Secretary of State under President McKinley and Tilden was a Democratic presidential candidate in the contested election of 1876 when Hayes won. The scholarships are awarded to young men who have the ability and ambition to follow in the footsteps of these great men.

Pessnell was valedictorian and student body president of Ruston High School. At L.S.U. he holds membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership fraternity, Phi Delta Sigma, freshman honor society, and Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

A cadet lieutenant colonel in the ROTC, he was the recipient of the Chicago Tribune Award for the outstanding junior army cadet at the University last year. He is also a member of the University Debate Team and was state president of the Future Farmers of America. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Gordon Pessnell of Ruston.

He is also a member of Phi Mu Epsilon, the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, Pi Tau Sigma, Tau Beta Pi, the Infantry Association, Scabbard and Blade, and other honorary and professional organizations.

Gleason Plans To Switch Sponsors, Change TV Show

NEW YORK, May 18—UP—Jackie Gleason, a fat comic afflicted with slim ratings, will scrap his half-hour film TV show for a "live" one hour show next fall, CBS-TV announced Friday.

As a result of the move, Gleason lost his automobile sponsor (Buick), but picked up two new ones, a watch company (Bulova) and a cigaret (Old Gold). The auto firm will continue to sponsor Gleason's 30-minute filmed "honeymooners" skit on CBS-TV through Sept. 22.

Gleason's new show, which will kick off at 6 p.m. CST on Sept. 29, will be patterned along the lines of his old successful one. The chubby comedian will bring back many of his old creations—Reggie Van Gleason, the poor soul, Rudy the Repairman and Joe the Bartender plus the June Taylor Dancers. He'll also continue his "Honeymooners" with Art Carney and Audrey Meadows.

A Blow At The Right-To-Work Law

Louisiana is one of eighteen states having a right-to-work law. When this measure was enacted, some leaders dourly predicted that it would set the labor movement in Louisiana back for 20 years and prove a great handicap to the trades crafts.

Yet no such results have followed enactment of the right-to-work measure, in Louisiana or the other 17 states where such legislation is on the statute books. The unions have continued to thrive and grow in membership and power.

Now, under the Earl K. Long administration, a powerful effort is in prospect to bring about repeal of this fair and beneficial law. Senator B. B. Rayburn has offered a "package" proposal designed to placate farmer opposition to repeal. He would exempt agricultural workers from the repeal provisions, leaving the right-to-work law applicable to them.

This is a vote-getting scheme that sacrifices principle in the interests of expediency.

If the right-to-work law is bad, as some labor spokesmen contend, then it should be repealed in its entirety. If it is good, as many thousands of Louisianans, including labor union members, believe then it should be retained in its present form.

The Louisiana statute, in fact, contains a guaranty vital to labor. It says, in essence, that nobody shall be denied employment because of membership in, or refusal to join, a union. This measure is the essence of American democratic philosophy, squarely in line with the safeguards embodied in the United States and various state constitutions.

There is nothing in the right-to-work law that any reasonable person should object to. Then why are some of the union bosses so opposed to it? The answer is that they advocate compulsory unionism. They would deny to the workers any choice, whether to join or refrain from joining, a union. They would place the workers in the cruel position of having to rely upon the whims of union bosses for his livelihood; and give to the union bosses the absolute right to blackball any worker, with or without cause, and deprive him of his livelihood.

American labor unions grew in strength and effectiveness for many decades on a purely voluntary basis, with no element of compulsion to aid them. To the extent that they place their reliance upon force and compulsion, in this present era, they weaken their own cause.

The American Farm Bureau Federation of Louisiana and other agricultural organizations were leaders in the successful fight to bring about enactment of the right-to-work law. They surely will not be deceived by the sop dangled before them in the Rayburn repeal measure. The people generally should let their legislators know in no uncertain terms how they feel about this repeal proposal.

Neutrality Growing Rapidly

Despite the fact that the United States has distributed $55 billion of American tax money to foreign countries during the past decade, as largesses and gifts, our government and people seem to be held in low esteem abroad.

The recipients of our bounty, for the most part, are trending steadily toward neutralism as between the conflicting aims and ambitions of the United States and Soviet Russia.

The real sentiment in many countries accepting American aid and yet unwilling to offend Russia probably can be expressed in the words of Shakespeare, "A plague on both your houses". Naturally, it would be injudicious for Greece or Egypt or even France to express this sentiment in so many words, but actions speak louder than words; and the elaborate system of economic and security agreements forged under United States auspices in the post-World War II era is endangered seriously.

The pattern of neutralism was set by India and its prime minister Nehru. To many American observers, India apparently leans far to the left, and is willing to make almost any sacrifice to placate Soviet Russia and Red China. India, of course, has China for a next-door neighbor, while its northern provinces are vulnerable to Soviet Russian attack. We continue to extend economic and military aid to India, however, in the hope that Nehru's vast populous country can be kept at least partially out of the Soviet orbit. Leading spokesmen of the Nehru government, together with many other elements including the press, are waging a constant campaign of criticism directed against the United States.

In Yugoslavia, our government extended huge military and civilian aid to Marshal Tito's regime when Tito was feuding with the late red dictator Joseph Stalin. Yet Tito has joined the ranks of the neutralists; and, like Nehru, appears to be leaning more and more upon Russia, at least from the economic standpoint, while continuing to accept American tax money.

Despite the valiant leadership of its aged chancellor and leader, West Germany is drifting rapidly into the neutralist camp. Surprisingly strong opposition to creation of the proposed 500,000-man West German army as a component of NATO is developing. The United States has delivered the first consignment of a billion-dollar arms program intended to bolster West German defenses.

In nearly every nation of Western Europe, the virus of neutralism is active. Even Iceland, with a Democratic tradition extending back a thousand years, is seeking to get rid of the huge American air bases which form a vital component of our aerial striking power.

Russia's new program of sweetness and light, as illustrated by the announcement of a 1,200,000 slash in the red armed forces, is having a considerable effect on world opinion. It may not fool American statesmen and military leaders, but it deludes war-weary and timid smaller nations, whose people want to be fooled.

Red propagandists, at work in all countries, are picturing Russia as a champion of peace and the United States as war-minded.

Russia's success in developing nuclear weapons has chilled European and Asiatic faith in the ability of the United States to protect smaller nations bound to us by military treaties, mutual aid pacts.

THESE DAYS

By George Sokolsky

Are You Scared?

Among my recent lighter reading is a book entitled "Our Daily Poison," written by Leonard Wickenden. It is not a whodunit nor a moral tract. Rather, it is a description of the poisons which we consume as a product of industrialization, standardization and modernization. The book does not list all of them, as no book could.

In the good old days when mother spent much of her day cooking and baking, the house always smelled of exciting things to eat, and when we died, it was from something usual like chronic indigestion. In those days when the doctor came to the house, his first command was, "Stick your tongue out." Apparently, just by looking at the tongue, he could solve all problems and he usually did by prescribing castor oil for one horn of the dilemma and paregoric for the other. Somehow the human race survived both, as we are here to attest, although by available statistics it should have been otherwise.

Today, according to this book, we eat the products of DDT, fluorides, hormones, chlorine dioxide and the Lord knows what else. Also we vaporize and fumigate and inhale and fill our lungs with poisons from smoke-stacks, from exhausts, and from cigars, cigarettes with or without complex superstructures to get rid of the smoke in spite of the fact that the only sound reason for smoking is to inhale the smoke.

It is a fascinating little book, particularly its attack on store-bread which I don't like anyway, preferring the home-baked or a sour rye or a pumpernickel, none of which I am now permitted to eat because I enjoy them. When one falls into hands of doctors, their rule is, if the patient enjoys it, it is against the diet. But store-bread, I do not like, even for a diet.

When I ate for pleasure, I used to cut my bread fairly thick. Nowadays, most bread is cut by machine and comes out about an eighth of an inch thick which is too thin. They even do it to Vienna bread which thus cannot take butter without crumbling the bread. It is a tough life!

However, the author of this book does not quarrel about that. His argument is that the best ingredients are milled out of the grain and are fed to hogs and cattle. If they are good enough for hogs, why not for people? That is a very good question because hogs are fed scizol, essentially, while humans, in this country, eat as much for pleasure as for good health. In fact, most of the breads which I have been instructed to eat, at one time or another, for good health, such as gluten bread, I let stand in the refrigerator until someone comes along and throws the loaf out. The theory used to be that I might be frightened into eating what is good for me—I'd sooner starve.

At any rate, what the author of this book particularly objects to is chlorine dioxide which is a maturing substance. They used to put Agene into bread, only to discover that it was a wrong thing to do. Now, they use chlorine dioxide. It sure was marvellous how the old folks took yeast, flour, water, eggs and sometimes a little milk or sugar and made bread without a maturing substance. And it tasted good—oh, so good!

That is something that few of the younger generation know anything about. They may know the precise difference between the Marxism of Kautsky and Lenin, but not about the virtues of home-baked bread as compared to store-bread wrapped in cellophane and full of chemicals.

Do you know what a polyoxyethylene is? See, even the Food and Drug Administration is not too strong for it in bread, but glycerides—well, you have to put something in store bread or it will dry up and have to be given to the Salvation Army or ground up into bread crumbs and canned. So they put a softener into the bread to keep it soft and fresh even on the third or fourth day.

Anyhow, I read the book with great interest and satisfaction. I should worry. I'm on a diet anyhow to get skinny and the less I eat, the skinnier I'll get. When men wear whiskers and look strong, they were not skinny. (Copyright, 1956, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

"Getting Along" One of the ideas we impress upon children these days is that they must learn to get along smoothly with people. This means that we teach them to try to put themselves in others' places and be considerate of others' feelings. The best way to teach this is by example.

The parent or teacher who over-rides a child's plea for help or consideration is setting in that child's mind quite the opposite from the idea he hopes to instill. If he listens, hears a child's story out, talks it over with the child in the same good-mannered, considerate fashion he would assume toward an adult, he has set the right idea of getting along with people.

"Mother, why can't I have a new dress for the prom? Alice is getting one, and so is Bernice."

"I know, dear. We would like to get you a new dress every time you wanted one, but Dad and I are planning to send you to the best college possible and that is going to cost a lot of money. We have to save it. You want to help. I know. Let's put fresh tulips on your taffeta. It will look fresh and nice. How about it?"

"Sure, Mother. It'll be fine. Thanks. You and Dad are just wonderful to me."

That child has taken long strides toward getting along with people, facing a fact and making the best of it.

"Mother, will you please go to school and have me put in another class? I don't want to see Miss Anne again as long as I live."

"Dear me. Being that Miss Anne lives down the block, that's a large order. What's the trouble?"

"Oh, she's always after me. I don't speak clearly, I don't pick up my feet, I stand wrong, everything about me is wrong with Miss Anne."

"Let's see. How about Miss Anne?"

"Let's see. How about Miss Anne?"

"Let's see. How about Miss Anne?"

"Let's see. How about Miss Anne?"

"Let's see. How about Miss Anne?"

"Let's see. How about Miss Anne?"

THE WEARY NURSE MAID

Worry Clinic

By Dr. George W. Crane

Would you classify Irene's parents as the "domineering" or the "persuasive" type? Many teen-agers kick over the traces at college because there is a reflection of parental dictation rather than their own personal decision. So try the new "cigarette test" on college youth. It soon weeds out leaders from sheeplike followers.

Case R-360: Irene L., aged 18 is a college freshman. "Dr. Crane, Irene has gone wild since she entered college," her faculty adviser informed me. "I understand she came from a splendid family where morals were stressed and liquor was taboo.

"But here on the campus she has kicked over the traces alarmingly. Why do teen-agers from good homes often violate the precept which their parents have taught them?"

Many factors are involved, but one basic question to ask is this: "Was the college student intimidated at home by dominant parents who forced sobriety upon her?"

"Or did she shun liquor, tobacco and wild parties to high school because she herself logically disapproved them?"

When you see girls smoking cigarettes on campus, it often means their parental training was of the "domineering" instead of the "persuasive" sort.

If, however, your children refrain from liquor and tobacco on the campus, it generally means they were self-reliant personalities even at high school.

Their behavior was thus not a matter of parental dictation, but a voluntary choice on their part.

Employ this new cigarette test, therefore, and you can make shrewd guesses as to the family background of young folks.

Repressed, overly dominated teen-agers kick over the traces when they get away from home, even though they lived in parsonages.

There is also a tremendous amount of unwise advertising pressure exerted on college youth to stampede them for commercial purpose into smoking and drinking.

The advertisers have long tried to make it seem "smart" and sophisticated to suck on a cigarette. So teen-agers who come from small towns and villages are often afflicted with a "small town" inferiority complex.

As health, domesticity or any other thing they think it is a disgrace to confess a village background. So they avidly guzzle liquor and suck on cigarettes in the mistaken notion that this makes people think they are from New York City, Chicago, or some other big city.

Besides, the power of mob psychology is tremendous. If 10 men or women accept cigarettes or liquor at a party and you are Number 11, when they are finally offered to you, the tendency is to follow the crowd.

It takes a very self-reliant, independent type of personality to resist such pressure.

So discuss this situation in Sunday school. Ask the students what they think they will do when confronted by the dilemma just described where the first 10 accept cigarettes and they are Number 11.

Will they decline with a shake of the head? Or will they react like timid sheep and follow the leader?

"Oh, I just took a glass of wine but didn't actually drink it," many a coed will defend her sheeplike action.

There are two types of personality—the leaders and the followers.

The campus cigarette test will weed them out fast. Followers are sheeplike. They adopt stupid, medically unwise habits, because they are afraid to stand out.

Leaders stand out anywhere. But you must prepare youth for these crucial dilemmas, and strengthen them psychologically far in advance.

RIPLEY'S—Believe It Or Not

PORTRAITS

By James J. Metcalfe

What We Do Now

OUR memories are fashioned from . . . The thoughts we have today . . . And how we deal with all the world . . . Along our common way . . . Each fleeting moment is a mold . . . In which we shape the past . . . And happiness or sorrow fills . . . Our memories at last . . . There may be deeds or words we wish . . . Would vanish in the dawn . . . But there are those reflections that . . . Are never really gone . . . So why not paint our dreams today . . . With colors to recall . . . Of loyalty and honesty . . . And charity to all? . . . Now is the time to guard against . . . The specter of regret . . . That there may not be anything . . . We wish we could forget.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX —

- You Need A Lawyer
- Engagement Party
- What's Wrong With Truck Driver?

By DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: When I met my husband four years ago I was 18 and he was 33. He had just been divorced, was jobless and drinking heavily. Nevertheless, I fell in love with him and was led to believe the feeling was mutual. I was living alone at the time, we had an affair and I soon found I was pregnant. It was then he decided he still loved his ex-wife. He wanted me to have the baby, give it up so he could remarry his divorced wife and they would raise the child as their own.

Maybe I was foolish, but I refused. He wanted the baby so badly he said he'd marry me. We have been married three years and have had two other children.

All through our marriage his first wife has been writing saying how much she still loves him. I too still love him and am very unhappy. It seems silly for us to stay together this way so I've asked for a divorce. He would agree if I consented to give up the oldest child. I won't, as I love all my youngsters and couldn't bear the thought of giving them up to her. What can I do?

Janis

DEAR JANIS: Your already confused case is further complicated by legalities about which I cannot advise you. I suggest a lawyer — the Legal Aid Society will help suggest one, since you have no money. You may also seek consultation with the Family Service Association or one of its affiliates. The telephone book will help you locate both.

I certainly think you should do everything you can to keep your children. It's extremely doubtful that your husband's first wife would accept your child as her own. She may be feigning acceptance of the situation to get her husband back.

You haven't had much joy from your marriage; I hope the future holds better things in store.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I plan to give my fiancée an engagement ring next month. I would like both sets of parents to be present, but since they have never met I'm uncertain how this can be arranged. Your advice will be appreciated.

Ned

DEAR NED: If all young people had this much consideration for their elders, what difficulties could be avoided! I just hope the thoughtfulness will be returned.

Since there will naturally be some strain on the occasion of your engagement, having the parents meet then for the first time would be too much of a complication. Why not just have your folks invite the girl's people for an evening? Everyone could then get acquainted pleasantly and smoothly. The girl's family could return the invitation, at which time the ring could be presented.

Perhaps you wanted an element of surprise to surround the ring-giving? This, I think, would be too involved.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: The only thing anyone has against my boy friend (who is the grandest guy in the whole world) is his work; he's a truck driver. We plan to be married in September, when he'll have $2,000 saved. My folks say he isn't good enough for me.

Paulette

DEAR PAULETTE: Many a white-collar worker can't start married life with $2,000. Character and disposition are much more important than type of work.

If every man in the world were an engineer or lawyer, who would get our food to market? Driving a truck is a responsible job; knights of the road must be hard-working, sober citizens. I salute them and so should your folks.

Write Dorothy Dix for free leaflet D-21, "A Happy Marriage," or, if you have a problem, send it to her. In all cases, be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send request to her, care of this newspaper.

Twining Deplores Acute Shortage Of Technical People

DETROIT, May 18 —UP— The United States is losing its lead in the air-power race to Russia because of an acute shortage of technical people, Gen. Nathan F. Twining believes.

Twining, Air Force chief of staff, said he still lead Russia but in order to retain this lead we must wipe out "our shortage of technical people — scientists, chemists, physicists, electronic specialists and so on."

Twining, here to participate in an armed forces week celebration, warned: "The inadequate numbers of technically trained people could take on the nature of a national emergency, if it has not already done so."

"One of the reasons for the increasing lack of interest in scientific careers is our national shortage of science teachers, particularly on the secondary school level."

"The Air Force has aided in other emergencies and we are now offering our help in this one. We have thousands of technically trained men who could teach science subjects. We see this as one way to help until the current teacher shortage is remedied," he said.

The general said the Russians are concentrating on long range bombers and "large bombs" because they could not best us in a "world war two type war" but could "neutralize us by direct air attacks."

Explosion Fatal To 2 Firemen At Maryland Plant

GALENA, Md., May 18 (AP)—A series of explosions and fire wrecked a gasoline bulk storage plant in this small eastern shore town today, killing two firemen and injuring at least eight others.

Two big explosions and a number of smaller ones rocketed through four tanks of the Kent Oil Co., near the center of this town of 400 on U. S. 213 near the Delaware line.

State police identified the dead as Richard Lockwood Loller, 38, of Chesapeake City and Harry Robert Brice, 25, of Betterton.

Firemen were battling the flames as the second big explosion occurred sending one big storage tank soaring 150 yards.

Lewin Steele, a volunteer fireman from Galena, said that as he headed for the fire several violent explosions "hook everything," showering him with debris.

Trees were knocked down and Steele said "glass fell all around me."

"When we got to the fire it looked like the whole upper end of the town was gone."

The blasts and fire wrecked the four storage tanks, a barn behind the storage depot, an office building and blew the rear second story off a nearby home and ripped a corner off another house.

Houses and the Galena school across the street were flash burned and their windows were shattered.

The storage depot was owned by James A. Ryan, mayor of Galena.

Truman Arrives In Rome; Favors Vatican Envoy

ROME —UP— Former President Harry S. Truman said on his arrival in Rome Friday that he favors the appointment of a United States ambassador to the Vatican "to help the peace of the world."

Mr. and Mrs. Truman were given a boisterous reception at the railroad station when they arrived in Rome from Paris on their European vacation. Police had a difficult time clearing a path through a crowd of some 500 persons who shouted "we want Harry" and "Viva Truman!"

The former President said it was "the biggest reception since I returned to Washington after the election in 1948."

Mr. Truman, appeared tired but cheerful, held a news conference at the Hotel Hassler less than an hour after his arrival here.

Asked whether he still favored U.S. diplomatic representation at the Vatican, he said, "yes, indeed."

"I always favored it," he said. "I'm a good Baptist, but I think it would help the peace of the world."

Mr. Truman is scheduled to confer with Pope Pius XII on Sunday, arrangements for the audience were being made by Bishop Martin J. O'Connor, of Scranton, Pa., rector of the Pontifical North American College. O'Connor was on hand to greet the Trumans at the station.

National College Frat Organizing At Northeast State

National officers of Tau Kappa Epsilon will arrive today to begin installation procedure for a chapter at Northeast State. Alpha Theta Chi, college social fraternity, will become affiliated with the national organization in ceremonies opening today at 1 p.m. and closing Sunday afternoon.

James C. Logan, grand president, and Frank Moulton, field secretary, will direct the two-day program of initiation and installation of the chapter into one of the oldest social fraternities in the nation.

The installation of Alpha Theta Chi will mark the first Northeast State chapter to become a national affiliate. The local organization is headed by C. B. Roberts of Epps.

Weekend events will open with general instructions by Logan, chief installing officer, and exemplification of the pledge degree during which all members of the new chapter are pledged. Ceremonies will be climaxed Sunday at 1 p.m. with a banquet at the Renaissance where the chapter will be installed and the charter presented.

Lectures and films used to illustrate the initiatory ceremony will be underscored during meetings held in the East Temporary buildings and the gymnasium on the campus.

The installing officer will include discussion of the national organization's structure and history, relationship of TKE to other fraternities, scholarship, exemplification of instruction in the initiatory degree ceremony, and other important factors pertaining to membership in the fraternity. Saturday's events will end with a barbecue at Bernstein Park at 8 p.m.

Sunday morning's schedule includes further instruction, which will precede the worship service at the College Place Baptist Church which the members will attend as a group.

From the church, the membership will go to the Renaissance Restaurant for the banquet and installation of the chapter, into Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The renewal of memberships to the Explorers Club for the coming season is now on. Renewals must be sent in before June 1st. Members who have had the rare opportunity of seeing the world from the armchair are loud in their praise of the pleasure derived from this Club since it's beginning in Monroe just two years ago.

"If he were as good a politician as Eisenhower or Kefauver, he would probably be doing better. A good politician doesn't let his right hand know what the left is doing," he added.

Long said further, "I think Eisenhower has got a man in Louisiana who he thinks is helping him and who is really hurting him more. That is ex-Gov. Kennon. I don't think Nixon helps Eisenhower any either."

The pelican governor went further to suggest that the senate committee investigating gas trust lobbying instead should investigate vice-president Richard Nixon.

"He admits he got a rake-off. With the other fellows it's a guess. I don't think those making the pot for him were doing it for nothing. They expected some services."

The $18,000 campaign fund established for Nixon by his friends figured in the 1953 campaign. He explained that the fund was used for extra trips back to California and for campaign expenses.

Governor Long asserted that the Eisenhower administration has proven that "all the shysters are not on one side. It looks like he wound up with some of those despite the honesty and fair play."

The governor said he doesn't think the "oil people will be so quick to contribute to Eisenhower this time as they were in 1952. We're hoping that some of that good stuff will rub off on us."

He said he will return to Louisiana Sunday.

BIBLE SAVED HIS LIFE

FORT WORTH, May 18—UP—Police Sgt. Lawrence Wood said Friday he owed his life to a Bible he always carried in a shirt pocket. The Bible bore three stab marks from an ice pick. Wood was injured while trying to take the pick away from Claude Hodges, 50, who stabbed himself 28 times with it. Doctors said

DERBY, England, May 18—UP—Divorce came before the honeymoon for Charles and Audrey Bembridge.

Little Mary was having dinner in the home of a playmate. When the family was observed bowing their heads for the blessing she faced her hostess and interrogated: "What are you doing?"

"This is where we give thanks for our daily bread," was the reply. Then the speaker asked: "Don't you folks do so at your house?"

"Nah," she spurted: "At our house we pay for our bread."

Here's one from the Washington Bureau: Hal March of TV's $64,000 Question was in Washington recently to moderate the "64 Million Vote Question," a feature of the National Press Club's Congressional night.

Interviewing Senator Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.) March slipped several times, valuing questions in terms of dollars instead of votes. "I have dollars and votes confused," he explained.

"That's O. K.," replied Kerr. "They're related."

Ben Dilworth, some fifteen or more years ago, was so badly injured in a gas field accident that his neck and back both were broken. None of his friends believed that he could possibly recover, and if he lived that he would be a hopeless invalid.

But no one seems to know how Ben pulled himself together, and has only recently completed a big job in Wisconsin where he worked for a sizeable salary as construction millwright. Now the job there is complete and Dilworth is ordered to a similar big job in Delaware.

He stopped off here enroute and admitted he had no desire to go so far North. Hearing that the Olin plant is to be expanded, he stated that he might try to get on there.

Wherever he goes he takes his family, which now has been reduced to wife and youngest daughter. This daughter tells her dad she will be in first year high school this fall and she would like to remain in Monroe for her high school course.

Members who have had the rare opportunity of seeing the world from the armchair are loud in their praise of the pleasure derived from this Club since it's beginning in Monroe just two years ago.

The many individuals who have expressed a desire of becoming members are asked to contact Mrs. Joe Combs or Pascal Norris for further information.

The coming season will offer six travel programs, beginning in September. In order to complete the organization for another year it is necessary that the members be enrolled before June 1st.

Membership cards will be mailed out from the headquarters in Little Rock. Those in charge are eager to report another good year with the Explorers' Club.

Stassen Expects Reds To Restudy Disarmament Plan

DALLAS, May 18—UP—Special President Assistant Harold E. Stassen said Friday night that he expects Russia to take another look at American proposals for disarmament and for preventing a doublecross.

Stassen spoke at the International dinner of the Dallas Council on World Affairs. He noted that he recently returned from seven weeks of London conferences of the United Nations subcommittee on disarmament.

"The Soviet representative was not prepared to fully explore aerial reconnaissance, insisting that such measures could be considered at a later stage," he said. "This was the principal difficulty as these meetings adjourned."

He said the United States made four "confidence-building" proposals at London:

1. It asked the participating nations to give fullest and most thoughtful consideration to President Eisenhower's proposal to halt further additions to nuclear weapons stockpiles.

2. The United States proposed the establishment of a pilot strip of about 60,000 square miles, containing "prescribed military and industrial installations," to test and refine inspection techniques.

3. The United States proposed organization of an international military communications system geared to receive advance notice on all projected movements of armed forces outside of national boundaries.

4. It proposed the exchange of technical missions among the five subcommittee nations to test and improve the enforcement of inspection techniques by such missions.

Stassen said that in accordance with the President's wishes, and "inspired by his unflinching determination to break the stalemate," this country will thorough review its policy in the light of the "constructive and revealing exchange" at London.

"I believe that similar studies will be carried out in Moscow."

Negro Jailed For Firing Shotgun On DeSiard St.

Monroe police are still holding 52-year-old Willie Abraham, Negro in lieu of a $1,200 bond on charges of discharging two shotguns out of a taxicab Thursday evening in the 1700 block of DeSiard.

Abraham was arrested by officers at 213 Grammont street. Abraham told officers after they discovered two shotguns in his home that he fired two shotgun blasts from the window of a taxicab. It was not reported what prompted the shooting.

Youths Get Court Order For Sleep

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 18—UP—Youths from Purcell, Okla., made it here safely for the Cotton Carnival but it took a court order so the youngsters could get some sleep.

The firm which was to supply 175 cots for the youngsters to sleep on at a local hotel had gone into bankruptcy and the court order was required to claim the cots.

out of surplus crop production. The bill gives Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson discretion as to when to put the plan into effect. He has said he will not do so until the winter wheat crop is planted next fall.

The most objectionable features in the new Senate bill, from the administration's standpoint, are a two-price support system for rice, a 6 per cent increase this year in support prices for feed grains, and a provision that would force Benson to offer surplus U.S. cotton for export sale at world market prices.

Sen. George D. Aiken (Vt.), Republican farm leader in the Senate, said the administration can live with the two-price plan for rice because Benson does not have to put it into effect.

The 6 per cent boost in supports for barley, grain sorghums, oats and rye also is a compromise acceptable to the administration. Originally, the bill contained a provision to boost feed grain price supports 8 per cent this year with another increase next year.

The State and Agriculture Departments vigorously opposed the surplus cotton provision. The State Department warned only Thursday that it might recommend a veto if the provision were left in the bill.

The Senate voted 71 to 13 against knocking out this provision. But it modified it slightly to permit Benson to accept prices higher than the original 25.5 cents a pound maximum if such bids are received. Benson had planned to sell at 27.5 cents a pound.

Under the compromise, feed grains would be left out of the acreage reserve part of the soil bank and would be free of acreage restrictions.

By a voice vote, the Senate approved another compromise amendment to prevent any state from having its cotton acreage allotment cut more than one per cent a year.

Cross Word Puzzle

hardly be in favor of the total abolition of ARMS of all kinds. He might well favor eliminating or abolishing the necessity or ALMS, however.

10. BEAR is the stronger answer, since no one does it MEAN WEAR (in this context) but also goes further and gives a REASON why they can't WEAR wool next to their skin - they just can't BEAR it.

17. A WIT can usually hold his own in argument and discussion. Physically a FIT man will find it impossible, even though FIT, to hold his own against a man who might well be stronger and heavier than himself.

18. "Sometimes difficult" favors WORD. It is OFTEN difficult, and frequently impossible, to get JUST the WORK you want.

CLUES DOWN:

1. GALE must surely apply. But there is no reason to assume that the men concerned are not fully competent to handle a heavy BALE, which is quite a usual sort of thing when loading a ship.

2. Since we see so many unexpected sights these days we can hardly say these give you a START but they do make you STARE sometimes.

3. The clue says "may help" which points to LAMP. A LIMP should definitely help; so also should a LUMP of some kind both of which are positive identifying marks. A LAMP "may help" if it is dark, for example.

9. SISTER is a certain answer while SISTER is not. How can the parents "decide to have" a little SISTER. It might turn out to be a little brother.

13. LETTER is the more acceptable answer. Unfortunately though it be, it is unlikely that ALL of the other little patients are getting BETTER. Furthermore, does this little child KNOW it is not getting BETTER?

14. SOWING is the obvious answer to this one, while SEWING could not be the answer.

15. NINE tends to justify the assumption of at least one of two GROWN daughters - hence the young men. NICE daughters may be only two in number, and again they may be just babies.

20. The high slow LOB often beats a man IF he's OUT OF POSITION, and probably only then. The difficult LOW ball often beats a man who is IN position.

21. GUN best suits the clue. Buying GIN, a man may ask for a PARTICULAR BRAND rather than "a special kind." GUNS vary a lot in type and purpose, and one might well ask for a special KIND.

any Communist party Congress in Moscow.

The article said that shortly before his death Lenin recognized "negative characteristics" in Stalin, then the party secretary.

Lenin, the father of modern Russia, already had suffered a second stroke that left his right side paralyzed when he wrote the testament in the form of letters to other Soviet leaders.

(Exiled Bolshevik Leon Trotsky, who was assassinated in Mexico in 1940, published what he described as the Lenin letter dealing with "considerations of a personal character.")

Control Measure Before Committee

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP) — A house Public Works subcommittee today was asked to approve legislation designed to control aquatic plant growths that clog navigable streams in Louisiana and other Southern states.

Reps. Willis and Thompson, Louisiana Democrats, sponsors of control bills, described the problem confronting those states in seeking to keep the streams clear.

The bills would authorize $1,350,000 for each of the next five years in Louisiana, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas.

Col. John U. Allen of the Army Engineers said his agency has spent $305,000 in each of the last five years, the bulk of it in Louisiana, in an effort to eradicate the water lilies, alligator weed and other aquatic plants.

Allen said under the proposed program it is hoped that more knowledge would be obtained on how to attack the problem.

Louisiana Department of Public Works said in a statement growth of the water lily is so rapid in ponds, lakes and sluggish streams of south Louisiana that in a matter of a few weeks entire streams will be come completely covered.

Sen. Cain Fires Broadside At GOP Security Program

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today "I'd hate to see" Harry P. Cain dropped from the Subversive Activities Control Board "for telling the truth" about the administration's employee security program.

Cain, who frequently has criticized the program during the last 16 months, made one of his sharpest attacks last night in a Denver speech that sounded as though he did not expect President Eisenhower to reappoint him to the board.

"My usefulness to the President... is, I believe, rapidly drawing to a close," the former Republican senator from Washington told his audience.

Cain's term in the $15,000-a-year job expires in August. He was appointed to the post by Eisenhower. Johnston said in an interview he thought Cain's criticisms "have been very beneficial to the administration and to government workers in that they have helped to show some of the mistakes made in the loyalty program."

He predicted that even if Cain is not reappointed, "the administration will eliminate some of the flaws he has pointed out."

Johnston is chairman of a Senate Civil Service subcommittee that has conducted a lengthy inquiry into the Eisenhower administration's program to keep any security risks off the federal payroll. A report on its findings is expected early in June.

Cain, who addressed a meeting of the Colorado branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, said he was speaking out in protest against the handling of the security program perhaps "for about the last time" in his present capacity.

Cain hit out at the "numbers game" which Johnston and other Democrats accused Vice President Nixon and other Republicans of playing with the employee security program in the 1954 election campaign.

He said the number of employees listed as fired or resigned "should be marked poison and employed with the greatest care."

Cain gave the latest administration figure as 9,700 and added:

"Anyone who employs the numbers without stating that the numbers are subject to a large margin of error is totally without knowledge or ought to have his head examined."

He also said the bare number 9,700 "is the most erroneous, dangerous and misleading government statistic ever made public."

Cain renewed a contention that Eisenhower's advisers have failed to keep the President properly informed about the operation of the program. He said he hoped to prevent Eisenhower "from innocently or inadvertently becoming involved in the numbers game."

Johnston has contended that testimony taken by his subcommittee showed the administration's box-scores on security dismissals were "a political hoax." He said more than 90 per cent of the employees listed as fired under the security program actually were discharged under regular civil service procedures.

Those attending were: Miss Bess Lance, Concordia parish; Mrs. Wilma Beckham, Bienville; Mrs. Georgia P. Pinkston, East Carroll; W. L. Richardson, Franklin; J. A. McBride, Jackson; R. L. Seegers, Lincoln; Lester Waldrup, Morehouse; Miss Gladys Gregg, Ouachita; B. F. Barron, West Carroll and Miss Eleona Brinsmade, City of Monroe.

Expansion Plans Point To New Products In '59

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—If planning will do it Americans are going to have a lot more things—and more new products—in 1959.

Industrial leaders have increased their expansion plans and research goals sharply. McGraw Hill Publishing Co.'s ninth annual survey, announced today, shows that business as a whole now plans to spend almost 39 billion dollars for new plants and equipment this year, a 30 per cent increase over 1955. This is four billion dollars more than a government prediction in March.

Today's survey shows that business also has plans now to spend another 39 billion in 1957, and that plans already drawn up call for spending more in both 1958 and 1959 than was spent in 1955.

What's more, manufacturing companies say they expect 11 per cent of their 1959 sales to be in products that weren't even made in 1955.

To do this they expect to increase their spending on research and development by 33 per cent to a total of nearly 6½ billion a year by 1959.

Manufacturing capacity, increasing this year by 8 per cent, will be half again as large by the end of the year as it was at the start of the Korean War.

The results of the survey—one of the most optimistic reports on the business future made in recent weeks—top the predictions of the U. S. Department of Commerce and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

About 30 per cent of capital expenditures by manufacturers will go for new construction and 70 per cent for new equipment.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Take a clean wash cloth and press the suds into your face, given special attention to the nose and chin, the oiliest areas. A terrycloth mitt is good for this, too.

Good Grooming Helps You Land That Job

Employment agencies frequently list positions "For neat, attractive or personable young women." As a matter of fact, the thousands of graduates soon to converge on the employment scene will meet much more competition than young women did in the past.

Today women are much more aware of the effect their appearance may have on their careers. It stands to reason that even if you are the fastest and most accurate stenographer in your class you will not have a chance to show what you can do if your personal appearance doesn't get you in the door.

Remember that the secret of attractive personal appearance is, after all, good grooming: lots of soap and water and common sense.

You should begin to plan for that important interview right now. A clear, healthy complexion is not an overnight thing. It is an every night thing! Correct such blemishes as blackheads, whiteheads and clogged pores with regular soap and water facials.

Most young women can use soap and water on their faces to great advantage. This is the way you

Stevenson Says
GOP Responsible
For Fly Attacks

LAKELAND, Fla., May 18—UP—Adlai Stevenson charged Friday that the Mediterranean fruit fly is threatening Florida's million-dollar citrus groves because of Republican penny-pinching.
The Democratic presidential hopeful also struck at the Eisenhower administration for election year efforts to balance the budget, which he said put our Air Force behind Russia in aircraft development.
The former Illinois governor flew into Florida early Friday morning to get a three-day jump on Sen. Estes Kefauver, his opponent in the May 29 presidential preference primary. Kefauver arrives Monday and both candidates will stump the state next week in a final bid for Florida's 28 national convention votes.
Addressing first a student group at Florida Southern College here and later an Armed Forces Day luncheon, Stevenson noted that the last infestation of the "Medfly" more than 25 years ago cost Florida some $25 million dollars.
The tiny orange and black fly lays its eggs in oranges and grapefruit. The larvae then make the fruit unfit.
Aiming his talk at the voters in the heart of the orange and grapefruit belt, Stevenson said the fruit fly "has returned because the gentlemen who control our government have decided they can save a few dollars by cutting the number of customs inspectors and inspections at the ports of entry."
Stevenson echoed charges made earlier by agriculture experts fighting the fruit fly outbreak who said the pest apparently came into the country in a piece of lugerage from a foreign country after the government two years ago sustituted "spot check" instead of 100 per cent baggage checks at entry ports.

Senators Told
20,000 Russians
Illegally In U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 18—UP—
Senate investigators were told Friday that more than 20,000 Russian refugees are living in this country illegally under false names to keep from being deported to the Soviet Union.
The testimony was given to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee by a New York writer, Julius Epstein. He said the refugees are potential threats to U. S. security because they are subject to blackmail by Soviet agents.
"It doesn't take much imagination to see how they could be pressed into spy activities" by the Communists, he said.
Epstein was one of several witnesses who told the subcommittee
Soviet agents are using psychological pressure on a world-wide basis to entice refugees from Iron Curtain countries to return to their homelands.
They testified that Red agents use letters, newspapers, and mysterious telephone calls to harass the refugees and convince them they cannot escape the Communists.

Alexandria Man
Baptist Secretary

ALEXANDRIA, La., May 18 (AP)—
The executive board of the Louisiana Baptist Convention today elected Dr. Robert L. Lee of Alexandria executive secretary of the board.
The board chose Dr. R. O.
Cawker of Shreveport superintendent of Evangelism. Both men will have offices in the Baptist building here.
Dr. Lee has been serving as interim executive secretary since Nov., 1955, when Dr. Floyd B.
Chaffin resigned. Before that he served as assistant executive secretary.
Dr. Lee, a native of Alabama, has been pastor of churches in Mississippi and DeRidder, La.

Negro Educator
Names Successor

PINEY WOODS, Miss., May 18
(AP)—Dr. Laurence Jones, widely known Negro educator, today revealed he has chosen his successor as president of Piney Woods School for Negroes, which he founded 35 years ago.
Dr. Jones pointed to Prof. Sin-gletton Bender, a 1925 graduate of the Rankin County school, as his choice for the second president after I die.
The aging Jones went one step further, naming Dr. Dixie E.
Hardy as Prof. Bender's successor.
Both Prof. Bender and Dr. Hardy are members of the six-member executive committee.
Dr. Jones, who started the school with little money, recently received nationwide fame and cash gifts totaling $800,000 from donors throughout the nation after an appearance on a nationwide television program. (This is Your Life).
Whether or not the charges are true that we have a do-nothing Congress and President, there is no question that not only is the hard-pressed taxpayer unable to relax into a period of do-nothingness, but he now has to struggle harder than ever to pay back money he just borrowed to pay his income tax.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Take a clean wash cloth and press the suds into your face, given special attention to the nose and chin, the oiliest areas. A terrycloth mitt is good for this, too.

Good Grooming Helps
You Land That Job

Employment agencies frequently list positions "For neat, attractive or personable young women." As a matter of fact, the thousands of graduates soon to converge on the employment scene will meet much more competition than young women did in the past.

Today women are much more aware of the effect their appearance may have on their careers. It stands to reason that even if you are the fastest and most accurate stenographer in your class you will not have a chance to show what you can do if your personal appearance doesn't get you in the door.

Remember that the secret of attractive personal appearance is, after all, good grooming; lots of soap and water and common sense.

You should begin to plan for that important interview right now. A clear, healthy complexion is not an overnight thing. It is an every night thing! Correct such blemishes as blackheads, whiteheads and clogged pores with regular soap and water facials.

Most young women can use soap and water on their faces to great advantage. This is the way you give yourself a facial of this sort: Fill the wash basin with thick suds and water as hot as comfortable. Take a clean wash cloth and press the suds into your face, giving special attention to the nose and chin, the oiliest areas. A terry cloth mitt is good for this, too.

The heat will open the pores and the soap will cleanse the skin. After leaving this on for a few minutes, massage gently with the cloth and rinse well with cold water. Follow this with a cold watersplash. This will help close the pores.

Remember that your hands will be in the spotlight even when making out your application. If you do your own manicures a five or 10 minute soaking in suds will soften the cuticle and loosen the dirt under the nails. Keep your nails "touch typing" length to prove that you mean business. Use a clear polish rather than one of the very bright ones.

Don't overlook your hair. It will be apparent if it has not been freshly shampooed. Use two soaps and then rinse until it squeaks. Do not effect a too-sophisticated style but do not have it too casual, either.

Be sure that white gloves, collars and cuffs, are spotlessly white. You can use either soap or detergent suds for these. If soil marks persist, especially on gloves and collars soak them for a few moments and then scrub them with a well-lathered brush.

If you are absolutely sure of your P.A. (Personal Appearance) you will have more confidence during your interview. Give yourself the P.A. test and you probably will be a "white collar worker" in no time at all!

Secretary To Negro Lawmaker
Found Guilty

NEW YORK, May 18 —UP—Hattie Freeman Dodson, a congressional secretary to Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-N. Y.), was convicted by a federal court jury Friday of evading income tax payments, receiving illegal refunds and claiming non-existent dependents.

Hattie Dodson, 47, wife of the choir master at Powell's Harlem Abyssinian Church and a secretary on the church staff, was convicted on all nine counts of an indictment and faces a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine on each count. That could mean a top penalty of 45 years in prison and $90,000 in fines. She will be sentenced on June 4.

Powell, a Negro, testified in the defense of his Negro secretary last Monday.

The chief prosecution witness, accountant Joseph E. Ford, testified for the government that Hattie Dodson had kicked back her $3,875 congressional salary for 1946 to Powell and kept only a refund for herself. Powell denied on the witness stand that he had ever taken a kickback from Hattie Dodson.

Cross said the bandits then took his wallet and ordered him to give them the keys to the cash drawer. Cross said the handkerchief was removed from his mouth long enough for him to tell them how to open the cash drawer.

Stevenson Says
GOP Responsible
For Fly Attacks

LAKELAND, Fla., May 18—UP—Adlai Stevenson charged Friday that the Mediterranean fruit fly is threatening Florida's million-dollar citrus groves because of Republican penny-pinching.

The Democratic presidential hopeful also struck at the Eisenhower administration for election year efforts to balance the budget, which he said put our Air Force behind Russia in aircraft development.

The former Illinois governor flew into Florida early Friday morning to get a three-day jump on Sen. Estes Kefauver, his opponent in the May 29 presidential preference primary. Kefauver arrives Monday and both candidates will stump the state next week in a final bid for Florida's 28 national convention votes.

Addressing first a student group at Florida Southern College here and later an Armed Forces Day luncheon, Stevenson noted that the last infestation of the "Medfly" more than 25 years ago cost Florida some $25 million dollars.

The tiny orange and black fly lays its eggs in oranges and grapefruit. The larvae then make the fruit unfit.

Aiming his talk at the voters in the heart of the orange and grapefruit belt, Stevenson said the fruit fly "has returned because the gentlemen who control our government have decided they can save a few dollars by cutting the number of customs inspectors and inspections at the ports of entry." Stevenson echoed charges made earlier by agriculture experts fighting the fruit fly outbreak who said the pest apparently came into the country in a piece of luggage from a foreign country after the government two years ago substituted "spot check" instead of 100 per cent baggage checks at entry ports.

Senators Told
20,000 Russians
Illegally In U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 18—UP—Senate investigators were told Friday that more than 20,000 Russian refugees are living in this country illegally under false names to keep from being deported to the Soviet Union.

The testimony was given to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee by a New York writer, Julius Epstein. He said the refugees are potential threats to U. S. security because they are subject to blackmail by Soviet agents.

"It doesn't take much imagination to see how they could be pressed into spy activities" by the Communists, he said.

Epstein was one of several witnesses who told the subcommittee Soviet agents are using psychological pressure on a world-wide basis to entice refugees from Iron Curtain countries to return to their homelands.

They testified that Red agents use letters, newspapers, and mysterious telephone calls to harass the refugees and convince them they cannot escape the Communists.

Negro Educator
Names Successor

PINEY WOODS, Miss., May 18 —UP—Dr. Laurence Jones, widely known Negro educator, today revealed he has chosen his successor as president of Piney Woods School for Negroes, which he founded 35 years ago.

Dr. Jones pointed to Prof. Singleton Bender, a 1925 graduate of the Rankin County school, as his choice for the second president after he dies.

The aging Jones went one step further, naming Dr. Dixie E. Hardy as Prof. Bender's successor.

Both Prof. Bender and Dr. Hardy are members of the six-member executive committee.

Dr. Jones, who started the school with little money, recently received nationwide fame and cash gifts totaling $800,000 from donors throughout the nation after an appearance on a nationwide television program. (This is Your Life).

Whether or not the charges are true that we have a do-nothing Congress and President, there is no question that not only is the hard-pressed taxpayer unable to relax into a period of do-nothingness, but he now has to struggle harder than ever to pay back money he just borrowed to pay his income tax.

Display Curtailed

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Air Force plans for the mightiest display of atomic jet bomber strength ever flown over Washington were sharply curtailed today.

The aerial show, scheduled for tomorrow's celebration of Armed Forces Day, was cut from 216 B47 atomic bombers to 43.

Pentagon officials attributed the cutback to fears by some high civilian officials that the proposed demonstration of air-atomic power might create an unfavorable world reaction, especially in view of current emphasis on disarmament efforts.

Protests against the mass flight had been made by private aircraft owners and pilots, who cited the hazards of a low level flight at jet speeds, but Pentagon officials said privately that the pressure had come from such places as the White House and Harold E. Stassen's disarmament office.

3 Negro Bandits Rob Tailor At Orleans Shop

NEW ORLEANS, May 18 (AP)—Three Negro bandits robbed a 50-year-old tailor of $800 today after hitting him on the head with a pistol.

S. W. Cross, co-owner of Cross Bros. Tailors, received deep cuts on the forehead and ear, police said.

Cross told police two of the bandits entered his store and asked to be measured.

While he was measuring them, the third man walked in the store. Cross said he turned his head and was slugged with a pistol.

"What's going on?" Cross said he asked.

"Where's your money?" one of the robbers asked.

"Either you tell me where the money is or I'm going to shoot you," Cross said the spokesman for the trio told him.

The Sounding Board

By JOHN G. CALE

For those who love gaiety, beauty, good company, and most of all thrilling music nothing suffices like an evening at an excellent concert. And next year Monroe society will revel in the best music, available anywhere, through the auspices of the local Community Concerts' affiliate Twin City Concerts Association.

The membership of this association is composed of Monroe citizens who enjoy entertainment of superior quality brought to them by artist who can lift the depressed spirit stir the senses, and become an always pleasant memory. These members are also aware of the prestige which such entertainment lends to the community at large, for surely the aura of all great cities would fade were their cultural advantages to disintegrate.

The universal appeal of the Boston Pops Orchestra, with its serious and meticulous approach to the lighter classics will be felt here during a spring concert. For further delightful entertainment the board of Twin City Concerts would like you to consider Eleanor Steber - remember her thrilling appearances on television, radio and opera - possibly a joint recital with major Metropolitan Opera stars Nadine Connor and Eugene Conley. Concert-goers who enjoy dancing might prefer the dazzling performance of Federico Rey and Pilar Gomez. The Beaux Arts Trio, called by Robert Casadesus, "the finest trio heard in America" could be brought to Monroe as well as the inspired duo-piano team of Gold and Fildale.

There is no limit to the talent available to people of Monroe and the surrounding towns. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to see and hear the best in concert attractions, and at the same time feel civic pride in bringing cultural advantages to a new high in Northeast Louisiana. Join Community Concerts now at the headquarters in the lobby of the Virginia Hotel.

Highway Patrol Chief, Newsman Get Appointments

JACKSON, Miss., May 18 (AP)—Highway patrol chief L. C. Hicks and Rolling Fork newspaper editor Hal Decell accepted appointments today from the Mississippi Sovereignty Commission.

Hicks will become chief investigator at $6,000 per year and Decell will be public relations director at $6,500. Both had been named earlier this week.

Hicks, now recuperating in a Jackson hospital from a mild coronary ailment, will leave the highway patrol to take over his new duties.

As public relations man Decell will be charged with taking the Mississippi story to the other states.

Hicks will head a sort of counter-intelligence against elements attempting to force racial integration.

The 12-man Sovereignty Commission was set up by the Legislature with $250,000 appropriation to fight federal "encroachment" on state's rights and against integration of the races.

Stocks Decline After Early Rise

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—There wasn't much spirit in the stock market today, and it declined mildly after a modest early rise.

Prices were up at the start of trading, giving rise to a belief that the market might be able to carry through with the rally that yesterday produced some good gains.

The market managed to carry on ahead until late in the day when gentle selling was enough to turn the price trend down and bring about a slightly lower finish.

There weren't many features. Tobacco stocks jumped ahead on light demand as Liggett & Myers raised the wholesale price on its king-sized Chesterfields.

U. S. Plywood Corp. announced that it plans a public offering of $15 million of 25-year sinking fund debentures.

Atlantic Steel Company of Atlanta increased its base price for hot rolled steel bars to $103 a ton, a six-dollar boost. In addition, the company said it will not absorb freight costs on bars or other rolled products.

Cotton Exchanges Studying Plan For Foreign Contracts

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—The New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges today announced they have formed special committees to study the question of adopting contracts that would permit delivery of foreign-grown cotton.

Since they were founded in the 1870s, the exchanges have only permitted delivery on contract of cotton grown in the United States.

A statement announcing formation of the study committee said price supports and the fixed price export sales program of the United States have "removed the relationship between futures markets and the world price of raw cotton" which has been consistently below the U. S. price.

The boards of managers of the two exchanges authorized committees to study the matter, the statement said, "in an effort to re-establish their usefulness to the world cotton trade as a place where all segments may buy and sell freely without the hampering influence of artificial support levels and other governmental policies."

Wininger Leads Kansas City Open With 133 Total

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 18 (AP)—Bo Wininger, who remarked before the start of the tournament that he was "about due to win one," shot a three-under-par 69 Friday for a 133 total and the halfway lead in the $22,000 Kansas City Open on Millburn Club's 6,545 yard course.

Colvin, Bulldog Batting Champ, With .410 Avg.

RUSTON, May 18 (Special)—For the third straight season Melvin Colvin has topped the Louisiana Tech baseball batting statistics.

Batting champion of the Gulf States Conference last season, the Dubach junior has been among the top leaders at the plate again this season. In conference play he has a .410 average getting 16 hits in 39 times at bat. The Bulldog left fielder has smashed out two home runs in G.S.C. action. Last year he hit .420 and in 1954 he averaged .393.

Other Techsters hitting above the .300 mark in G.S.C. competition this spring include third baseman Wade Scott with .381, first sacker Doug Robertson with .340, pitcher Milford Andrews with .360, and center fielder Bobby Shores with .309.

Scott tops the Canines in home runs with four in G.S.C. play. Robertson has banged out five doubles to lead in that department.

Andrews was Tech's mainstay on the mound in Gulf States action. The Delhi senior worked a total of two in four appearances. He gave up 18 runs, struck out 33, and has an earned run average of 3.30.

Jesse Mercer went a total of 23 innings. He won two and dropped one tussle. Mercer allowed four earned runs and struck out 13. Dudley Trigg had a 1-0 won-loss record and in nine innings gave up but one run for the lowest earned run average on the squad. Doyle Kile won one game and lost one in pitching 15 innings.

Small Field Will Test Nashua's Bid As Richest Horse

CAMDEN, N. J., May 18 (UP)—Nashua, the thoroughbred millionaire, will face a small field but a big assignment Saturday when he attempts to set a new world money-winning record in the $30,000 added Camden Handicap at Garden State Park.

Only C. V. Whitney's Fisherman, R. L. Dupuy's Galdar, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Markus' Mielieux and Castle Rock Farm's Mr. First were named Friday to oppose the champion colt in the mile and one-eighth race.

Despite the fact he will have to carry top weight of 129 pounds and give away from nine to 19 pounds to the opposition, Nashua is an overwhelming 1-2 choice to eclipse Citation's all-time record earnings of $1,085,760.

However, the husky son of Nasrullah must win in order to set a new record, for he is $8,145 shy of Citation's mark and second place money in the Camden is worth only $6,000.

Wininger Leads Kansas City Open With 133 Total

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 18 (AP)—Bo Wininger, who remarked before the start of the tournament that he was "about due to win one," shot a three-under-par 69 Friday for a 133 total and the halfway lead in the $22,000 Kansas City Open on Millburn Club's 6,545 yard course.

Displaying pressure jitters, Wininger threw a club after he pulled his second shot on the 18th hole, but his overall effort Friday was good enough for a four-stroke margin over the excellent field.

The 34-year old Oklahoma City professional, who fired an eight-under-par 64 for the opening day lead, fought a duel with Bob Rosburg, San Francisco, for 13 holes before the Californian faltered with a double bogie six on the 14th.

The 30-year old Rosburg was deadlocked in second place with eight other pros with 137 totals at the 36-hole point in the 72-hole affair where the top money prize is $4,300.

Fred Hawkins, seasoned tourney player from El Paso, Tex., blistered the course Friday with a 64 for the hottest round. Hawkins hit each green in regulation and dropped eight birdie putts for his brilliant performance. With his opening 73 it left him in the 137 total bunch.

Others in that group were defending champion Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla.; St. Louis Open champion Dow Finsterwald, Bedford Heights, Ohio; Al Balding, Etendale, Canada; Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa.; Ted Kroll, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Don January, Abilene, Tex.; and Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex.

Alone at 138 was Masters champion Jackie Burke, Klamath Lake, N.Y. He shot 68 Friday to go with his opening 70.

LAW KNOWS THE SCORE

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Pitcher Vernon Law of the Pittsburgh Pirates knows the right time. Before leaving training camp at Fort Myers, Fla., Pittsburgh baseball writers voted him "the most improved Pirate over last season." A Fort Myers jeweler gave him a $250 wrist watch as an award.

The Albany Senators of the Class A Eastern League are affiliated with the Boston Red Sox.

MISSISSIPPI TITLE

JACKSON, Miss., May 18 (AP)—Superiority at the net and a strong forehand gave Johnnie McQuie of Meridian High School the 1956 Mississippi high school tennis singles title over Tom Casey of Laurel 6-0, 6-1 here today.

Purdue's Len Dawson repeated as the Big Ten's total offense leader for the second straight season. He completed 76 of 134 passes for 901 yards and six touchdowns.

RIDER KILLED

TORONTO, May 18 (AP)—Daniel W. Morley, 28, an exercise boy, was killed today at suburban Long Branch Race Track when a horse he was riding pitched him headlong into the outer rail of the track.

The Ocala Chamber of Commerce made Needles an honorary member even before he won the Kentucky Derby. The colt was foaled in Ocala, Fla.

British Games Host 3 Four-Minute Milers

LONDON, May 18 (AP)—Three of the world's six 4-minute milers head an international field here to compete in the annual British Games at White City Stadium tomorrow and Monday.

Back again are Britons Brian Hewson and Chris Chataway and Laszlo Tabori of Hungary, the trio that broke the barrier en masse in a classic mile last year.

But despite their presence, the most likely center of attention is the slim Hungarian army lieutenant, Sandor Iharos, who holds or shares six world running marks.

Iharos, out of the limelight since suffering an ankle injury while on a tour of Australia last year, is reported fully recovered by the trainer of the Hungarian squad, Mihaly Iglol.

DEAF MUTE WINS

MILAN, May 18 (AP)—Deaf mute Mario D'Agata of Italy, No. 1 challenger for the world bantamweight boxing title held by France's Robert Cohen, outpointed Spain's Jesus Rubio tonight.

The University of North Dakota hockey team, which includes eight players from Manitoba, Canada will play 28 games this season.

There are over 400 makes of power mowers on the American market today. Many are good — but no matter how well they're made, nobody's power mower is worth a "plugged nickel" unless it's backed by service. For many years we've specialized in power mower service with factory trained mechanics who know what they're doing. Unlike many dealers, we refrain from using inexperienced, part time help brought in just for the busy lawn mower season. Our veteran servicemen, plus the most complete stock of power mower parts in the Monroe area, eliminate the service gamble you might take on many other brands.

Short Cuts In Clothes-Making Will Be Shown

Short cuts in clothing construction will be demonstrated at a workshop on the Northeast State campus, scheduled June 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the amphitheatre type room of the new classroom - administration building.

Home economics teachers in this area have been invited to observe the demonstration which is being sponsored by the home economics faculty of the college.

Mrs. June Dyson, a specialist in this phase of clothing construction, will illustrate the Bishop method which uses the quickest procedures in sewing. Mrs. Dyson, formerly a home economics teacher, is highly recommended by Miss Lela Tomlinson, state supervisor of home economics, who will be a guest at the conference.

Mrs. Dyson attended the Bishop workshop at Texas Technological College and at Texas State College for Women. She received the bachelor's degree from Northwestern State College and the master's from Texas State College for Women. Her professional experience includes three years of teaching clothing and textiles at Louisiana College.

The trade method in clothing construction which Mrs. Dyson will demonstrate is also called the Bishop method because of the factory work which the Bishop family did in applying short cuts to the making of garments.

The plan has been widely accepted, according to Miss Frances Kelso, assistant professor of home economics at Northeast. Teachers attending the conference will have opportunity to observe the entire steps in the making of a blouse and skirt by the specialist.

Mr. Kessler formerly held the position of manager for Southern Bell, in Winnsboro, La.

First Class'

Scientists Laud Atom-Smashing Plant Of Soviets

MOSCOW, May 18 (AP)—Western scientists have given a look at the Soviet Union's hitherto top-secret atom-smashing laboratory.

"Absolutely first-class work," said one American.

The scientists, including American atomic physicists, are here for an international atomic conference. Their Soviet hosts took them to the huge plant about 90 miles north of Moscow yesterday.

"Anyone seeing it would be bowled over," Dr. Louis Alvarez, nuclear scientist from the University of California, commented. "They are doing absolutely first-class work. It was an extremely impressive visit."

In addition to Russia's huge synchrotron, the American and British scientists saw a new and even more powerful machine scheduled to go into operation this year with a production capacity of 10 billion electron volts.

U.S. scientists said its design and principles were the same as the atom smasher at Berkeley, Calif., which generates six billion electron volts. Russian scientists saw the Berkeley machine on a recent visit to the United States.

One American scientist, who asked not to be named, summed up his impression of the visit to the Soviet plant like this:

"The Russians did not go into the Olympic games until they were sure they could win. And they did not let anyone see this plant until they were sure the visitors would say: 'This is terrific.'"

Observers of Soviet affairs reported in New York that there are indications the Soviet Union is about to disclose much of the results of its research on the control of thermonuclear reactions. These reactions give the hydrogen bomb its tremendous explosive force. Control over them would open up an endless store of energy for use in industry.

Seen as indications that extensive disclosure of this work may be in the offing were recent speeches and articles by Soviet atomic physics chief Igor Kurchatov on progress in the field and an announcement that details would be published soon in Soviet scientific journals.

National Guards Leave Sat. For Camp Beauregard

The local third battalion of the 199th Infantry regiment, under command of Lt. Col. Walter H. Johnson, will depart Monroe early Saturday morning to conduct range firing at Camp Beauregard. Approximately 600 young men from Monroe, Bastrop, Ruston and Farmville will travel by military convey during this move.

According to Col. Johnson, the strength of the guard has increased tremendously during the past year and many of the men who are now members of the "Fighting Third" will be firing army weapons for first time.

Past training in preparation for this important occasion has included nomenclature, functioning and all safety precautions that are necessary in the conduct of successful range firing.

Various types of weapons will be fired. Some of these include the regular service rifle, the army carbine, pistol, and Browning automatic rifle. According to Col. Johnson, the men of this battalion are keyed up and ready to qualify themselves as army marksmen.

In the past the men of the local National Guard units have distinguished themselves by excellent shooting in comparison with other state units, Col. Johnson said.

Student Council Inducts Officers

The newly elected student council officers for Ouachita Parish High school were installed at a general assembly in the school auditorium.

Jim Corry, out-going president presented the gavel to Doyle Malone.

In reviewing the work of the council for the year it was noted that the council had sponsored: discussion groups on teacher-student relations, open and closed panel discussions, all civic drives, a school sack-lap, amendments to better the council, a float in the homecoming parade, a new seal for the high school and the purchasing of trash cans for the school.

The new officers will preside at the next meeting May 23.

Youth Is Accused Of Attacking Girl

Charles W. Borden, 20, who lives on a houseboat on the Ouachita river at the foot of 21 Pearl street, Friday was arrested by juvenile authorities on charges of carnal knowledge of a juvenile, Major John B. Whitfield reported.

Borden was booked about noon Thursday and will be tried in fourth district court, the juvenile officer stated.

Major Whitfield and Sgt. James Kelly made the arrest.
